DISPATCHER JANELLE MILLER

I began my law enforcement career in 1990 as a Community Services Officer, and I have also been a Reserve Deputy Sheriff. I became a Dispatcher with Atherton PD in 1997, and have been selected as the "Dispatcher of the Year" for San Mateo County. I have also been a school teacher, and enjoy educating children on "911 for Kids" classes. I love yoga, scrap booking, making Halloween props, and going on motorcycle rides with my husband Greg.

LIFE TIP

"Never dial 911 as a prank call – it's not a joking matter. Not only does it cause the police to come to your house, but it also ties up a phone line that cannot be used for real emergencies. 911 is there to help you when you need it, and it should not be misused."

Red E. Fox is the mascot for the "911 for Kids" program taught in the elementary schools. He helps teach kids some very important lessons about how and when to call 911. He keeps busy traveling around to the various schools.
