OFFICER TIMOTHY MARKS

Since childhood, I have always enjoyed helping people and serving my community. I was also very active in sports and loved the camaraderie I experienced when participating on a team. It was only natural that I chose law enforcement for my career. I worked very hard to become a police officer but all my hard work prepared me for the journey that lay ahead. Being a Police Officer is not easy and it's not for everyone but I find it exciting, rewarding and fun. I receive great satisfaction and pleasure in the diversity that this profession offers.

LIFE TIP

"Learn from your mistakes, or better yet. Learn from the mistakes of others."

On my free time I enjoy being with my family. Whether we're traveling or just hanging out, we are just happy to be together. They are my pride and joy and everything else is a distant second place to them. There is nothing more important than family.
