OFFICER RICK ENBERG

For the past 40 years, I have served and protected our community as a civilian Police Officer and United States Army Reservist, commonly referred to as a citizen Warrior. I began my military career in the Military Police and as a Criminal Investigations Special Agent. My first overseas deployment was to the Republic of South Vietnam. Then I had additional deployments to the Republic of South Korea, Germany, and finally to Iraq. My civilian law enforcement career began as a Deputy Sheriff for Santa Cruz County Sheriff's Department and continued with the Atherton Police Department. Our entire family is in Public Safety. My wife Jeanne is the Manager for Emergency Communications Division and the Records Division for the Santa Maria Police Department. My daughter, Elizabeth, is a Correctional Officer with the Arizona Department of Corrections. My oldest son, Max, is a Police Officer also with the Santa Maria Police Department. My youngest son Nick recently graduated from Northern Arizona University and will be entering the Public Safety field as a Police Officer or as a Fire Fighter.
