CHAPLAIN JACQUELINE CLARK

I grew up in a little town and served customers in my parents grocery store and gas station so I became very good at helping people find what they needed. As a Chaplain, I get to know Police Officers and find ways to help them help others. The Officers call me to go with them when people need help figuring out how to take care of themselves and others when bad things happen. I am married to Gene and we have two daughters. I enjoyed helping them make good choices and learn from their
